3/26/54

OLD ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, Norfolk, Va. One of the few buildings not totally destroyed by fire caused by bombardment from Lord Dunmore's British Fleet on January 1, 1776. The church was struck by cannon shot and the ball is imbedded in cement in the spot where it struck. Note cannon ball over plaque.

Ektachrome by Jack Taylor

On a Business trip thru Va. + Ok boy did it get hot today. We left Mon. + expect to get home on April Fool's day maybe. We'll be fooled, who knows. We hope to be in Williamsburg over weekend. Hope this finds you folks all OK.

Marian

379-D-10

Pub. by Campbell's Photo Service & Supply Corp. Norfolk, Va.

63077

Dextone Made Direct from Kodachrome and Ansco Color By Dexter Press, Pearl River, N. Y.

NORFOLK MAR 29 8 30PM 1954 VA.

UNITED STATES POSTAGE 2 CENTS 2

POST CARD

Address

Mrs Harry Shellenberger
236 Evans St
Pottstown,
Penna

Monty